We would like to ask you again - after the parliamentary elections - for your most recent personal opinion on the political situation and on different political parties. We believe that it is quite important to find out after the elections how people envision new development in our country. We are going back to some questions, other questions are completely new.

We gained your address from the questionnaire you helped us with a short time ago, so that we would be able to connect this new questionnaire with the previous one. Let us point out that the survey is strictly confidential and all results of the survey are entirely anonymous. Thus, your name will not be mentioned anywhere.

We thank you very much for your cooperation.

Let us start with several general questions.

1. Would you say that you are interested in politics:
