Comparative Study of Electoral Systems
Module 2: Macro Report

August 23, 2004

Country: Czech Republic

Date of Election: 11. and 12 June 2002

NOTE TO COLLABORATORS: The information provided in this report contributes to an important part of the CSES project. Your efforts in providing these data are greatly appreciated! Any supplementary documents that you can provide (e.g., electoral legislation, party manifestos, electoral commission reports, media reports) are also appreciated, and may be made available on the CSES website.

Part I: Data Pertinent to the Election at which the Module was Administered

1. Report the number of portfolios (cabinet posts) held by each party in cabinet, prior to the most recent election. (If one party holds all cabinet posts, simply write "all".)

Name of Political Party	Number of Portfolios
Czech Social Democratic Party (CSSD)	All

1a. What was the size of the cabinet before the election?

17

2. Report the number of portfolios (cabinet posts) held by each party in cabinet, after the most recent election. (If one party holds all cabinet posts, simply write "all").

Name of Political Party	Number of Portfolios
Czech Social Democratic Party (CSSD)	11
Christian-Democratic Party–Czechoslovak People’s Party (KDU–ČSL)	3
Union of Freedom-Democratic Union (US-DEU)	3

2a. What was the size of the cabinet after the election?

17

3. Political Parties (most active during the election in which the module was administered and receiving at least 3% of the vote):

Party Name/Label	Year Party Founded	Ideological Family	European Parliament Political Group (where applicable)	International Party Organizational Membership
A. Czech Social Democratic Party (CSSD)	1990	D
B. Civic Democratic Party (ODS)	1991	E
C. Christian-Democratic Party–Czechoslovak People’s Party (KDU-ČSL)	1990*	I
D. Union of Freedom-Democratic Union (US-DEU)	1998	G
E. Communist Party of Bohemia and Moravia (KSCM)	1990*	B

*Both Parties existed throughout the communist period, but under different names. In 1990 Communist Party of Czechoslovakia federalized its structure into separate Czech and Slovak branches of communist party. As concerns KDU-CSL, party joined some other Christian political forces in 1990 and 1992 and changed its name (before it was only Czechoslovak People’s Party). Founding years for both parties might be taken also 1921 for KSCM and 1918 for KDU-CSL).

 KDU-CSL and US-DEU ran together as electoral coalition.

Ideological Party Families: (These are suggestions only. If a party does not fit well into this classification scheme, please provide an alternative and some explanation).

 No.

3b. Were there any significant parties not represented in parliament after the election?
 No.

3c. Were there any other non-represented parties or independent actors whom you believe to have had a significant effect on the election?
 No.

4a. Ideological Positions of Parties:

Please indicate Parties A-F's positions on a left-right dimension (in the expert judgment of the CSES Collaborator). If this dimension is not appropriate, please provide an explanation of the salient cleavages, and parties' relative positions.

Party Name	Left										Right
	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
A. Czech Social Democratic Party (CSSD)				X
B. Civic Democratic Party (ODS)											X

D. Union of Freedom-Democratic Union (US-DEU)									X
E. Communist Party of Bohemia and Moravia (KSCM)		X
F. Koalice (electoral coalition of KDU and US)								X

4aa. Do you believe there would be general consensus on these placements among informed observers in your country?

Yes. Perhaps some would place KSCM on 0 and ODS on 10.

4b. If you have asked respondents to rank political parties on an alternative dimension, other than the left-right dimension, please also provide your own rankings of the parties on this dimension.
No.

Name of dimension:

Label for left hand position:

Label for right hand position:

	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
B.

F.

4bb. Do you believe there would be general consensus about these placements among informed observers in your country?

5. In your view, what are the five most salient factors that affected the outcome of the election (e.g. major scandals; economic events; the presence of an independent actor; specific issues)?

1. economic issues concerning taxation, social welfare and health care

2. the solution of financial debts of ODA as a part of electoral coalition Koalice – it caused dramatic decrease of electoral support of Koalice

3. split of Jan Kasl (mayor of capital city Prague) from ODS a week before elections

5a. Do you believe there would be general consensus about the importance of these factors among informed observers in your country?

Not sure.

6. Electoral Alliances:

Sometimes, electoral alliances are made at the constituency level as, for example, in Finland. Documenting who is allied with whom, and how, in each constituency is a large task and we do not expect you to do more than make some general reference to the existence of constituency-level alliances. Sometimes, electoral alliances are made at the national level -- these are the alliances that we would like you to identify. Information is sought on who is allied with whom and on the nature of the electoral alliance.

a) Were electoral alliances permitted during the election campaign?

- No
- Yes

If yes, please complete the following:

Alliance Name	Participant Parties (please indicate dominant members with an "*")
Alliance 1: Koalice	KDU-CSL and US-DEU (same strength)

Alliance 2:

Alliance 3:

Alliance 4:

Alliance 5:

7. Party Leaders and Presidential Candidates:

In legislative elections, please report the leader of each party.

In presidential elections, list presidential candidates and their parties. If candidates were endorsed by more than one party, please indicate this below.

Party of Candidate	Name of Party Leader or Presidential Candidate
A. Czech Social Democratic Party (CSSD)	Vladimír Špidla
B. Civic Democratic Party (ODS)	Václav Klaus
C. Christian-Democratic Party–Czechoslovak People’s Party (KDU-ČSL)	Cyril Svoboda
D. Union of Freedom-Democratic Union (US-DEU)	Petr Mares
E. Communist Party of Bohemia and Moravia (KSCM)	Miroslav Grebenicek

Together 29 parties and coalitions ran in the elections, but except those 5 mentioned, none managed to get more than 3 %.

Part II: Data on Electoral Institutions

If possible, please supplement this section with copies of the electoral law, voters' handbooks, electoral commission reports, and/or any other relevant materials.

A. QUESTIONS ABOUT ELECTORAL DISTRICTS.

Definitions: An electoral district is defined as a geographic area within which votes are counted and seats allocated. If a district cannot be partitioned into smaller districts within which votes are counted and seats allocated, it is called primary. If it can be partitioned into primary districts, and during the counting process there is some transfer of votes and/or seats from the primary districts to the larger district, then the larger district is called secondary. If a district can be partitioned into secondary districts (again with some transfer of votes and/or seats), it is called tertiary.

In some electoral systems, there are electoral districts that are geographically nested but not otherwise related for purposes of seat allocation. In Lithuania, for example, there are 71 single-member districts that operate under a majority runoff system, and also a single nationwide district that operates under proportional representation (the largest remainders method with the Hare quota). Neither votes nor seats from the single-member districts transfer to the nationwide district, however. The two processes are entirely independent (with voters having one vote in each district). In this case, the nationwide district, although it contains the 71 single-member districts, is not considered to be secondary. It is primary. One might say that there are two segments to the electoral system in such cases.

1. How many segments (as just defined) are there in the electoral system?

- 1 segment
- 2 segments
- more than 2

Please answer the following questions (questions 2 through 11) for each segment of each directly elected house of the legislature:

2. How many primary electoral districts are there?

14

3. For each primary electoral district, how many members are elected from each district?

(If district variation exists, answer 3a)

Depends on the number of participation voters. Thus, in 3a I refer to actual size of PE districts.

3a. If districts elect varying number of members, please list the districts, indicating the number of members elected from that district. (Attach separate sheets, as required).

District	Number of Members
Hlavní město Praha	25
Středočeský kraj	23
Jihočeský kraj	12
Plzeňský kraj	11
Karlovarský kraj	5
Ústecký kraj	14
Liberecký kraj	8
Královéhradecký kraj	11
Pardubický kraj	10
Vysočina	11
Jihomoravský kraj	23
Olomoucký kraj	12
Zlínský kraj	12
Moravskoslezský kraj	23

4. How many secondary electoral districts are there?

1

5. How many tertiary electoral districts are there?

0

If possible, please summarize the information above for questions 1-3 and 4-5 in the table here:

Chambers/Houses		Lower			Upper
Segments	Number	1	2	3 or more	1	2	3 or more
Primary districts	Number	14
	No. of members*	5–25
Secondary districts	Number	1
	No. of members*	200
Tertiary Districts	Number	0
	No. of members*	0

*Please report the total number of members for all districts, per segment.

B. QUESTIONS ABOUT VOTING.

6. Exactly how are votes cast by voters?

Voters cast vote for a party (they give the candidate list of a party into the ballot box), before that they are allowed to mark two candidates on the party list. If these candidates receive more than 7 % of preferential votes for the candidates of the whole party, they are allocated seat as first.

6a. How many votes do they or can they cast?

6b. Do they vote for candidates, for lists, or for both? (please explain)

For list and may give preference vote for 2 candidates at maximum.

7. Are the votes transferable?

No.

8. If more than one vote can be cast, can they be cumulated?

No.

9. Are there any other features of voting that should be noted?

C. QUESTIONS ABOUT CONVERTING VOTES INTO SEATS.

10. Exactly how are votes converted into seats?

Votes are calculated in the primary electoral districts. Then they are summed at the national level. If party receives more than 5 % of votes nationally, the party may win a seat. The seats are allocated regionally in each primary electoral district according to d'Hondt electoral divisor.

10a. Are there legally mandated thresholds that a party must exceed before it is eligible to receive seats?

If so, what is the threshold?

5 % for single party

10 % for coalition of 2 parties

15 % for coalition of 3 parties

20 % for coalition of 4 parties

10b. What electoral formula or formulas are used?

D' Hondt

11. If there are lists, are they closed, open, or flexible?

- closed
- flexible, but in practice virtually closed
- flexible
- flexible, but in practice virtually open
- open

Definitions: A list is closed if the seats that are awarded to that list are always occupied by the candidates in order of their appearance on the list (i.e., if the list gets x seats then necessarily the top x names on the list get the seats). A list is open if the question of which candidates on the list get the seats that are awarded to the list is determined solely by the votes that each candidate receives. A list is flexible if parties place their candidates in the order they would like to see them elected, but voters can, with varying degrees of ease, change this order through votes they cast for individual candidates.

Please repeat questions 2 through 11 of this section for each segment of each directly elected house of the legislature.

D. QUESTIONS ABOUT THE POSSIBILITIES OF ELECTORAL ALLIANCE.

Definitions: A joint list refers to one on which candidates of different parties run together.

Apparentement refers to a legal agreement between two or more lists to pool their votes for the purposes of an initial seat allocation, with seats initially allocated to the alliance then reallocated to the lists in the alliance.

12. What are the possibilities of forming alliances in the system?
Only electoral coalitions as mentioned above.

12a. Can parties run joint lists?

- Yes
- No

12b. Is there apparentement or linking of lists

- Yes
- No

12c. Can candidates run with the endorsement of more than one party?

- Yes
- No

12d. Do parties withdraw their lists or candidates in some constituencies, urging their supporters there to vote for an ally's list or candidate?

- Yes
- No

12e. Other?

13. Are joint lists possible?

Yes.

13a. If joint lists are possible, are they subject to different regulations than single-party lists?

For example, higher thresholds, different numbers of candidates that may appear on the list, etc.

Thresholds for electoral coalitions

5 % for single party

10 % for coalition of 2 parties

15 % for coalition of 3 parties

20 % for coalition of 4 parties

14. If apparentement is possible, what lists can participate in such agreements:

- lists of the same party in the same constituency
- lists of the same party from different constituencies
- lists of different parties in the same constituency

15. If candidates can run with the endorsement of more than one party, is this reflected on the ballot?

- No
- No party endorsements are indicated on the ballot paper
- Yes, candidate's name appears once, together with the names of all supporting parties
- Yes, candidate's name appears as many times as there are different parties endorsing him/her, each time with the name of the endorsing party
- Yes, other (please explain):

Part III: Data on Regime Type

Below are various questions about the type of regime--presidential, parliamentary, semi-presidential--in your country. There are two potential problems with these questions that should be noted at the outset. First, in some countries there may be a discrepancy between the de jure (or legal) situation and the de facto (or practical) situation. For example, in Great Britain the Queen still possesses a legal right to veto legislation, but this right has not been exercised since 1707. In the case of such obviously obsolete powers, please answer according to the de facto situation. Otherwise, describe the de jure situation. A second potential problem is that the questions may not be phrased optimally for the situation in your particular country. In such cases, please answer as best you can, providing some indication of the difficulties as you see them.

A. QUESTIONS REGARDING THE HEAD OF STATE.

Definitions: The Head of State is typically the highest ranking official in the executive branch of government. Often, this position is held by a president or a monarch, and may be more ceremonial than effective. The Head of Government is usually the highest ranking official in the legislative branch of government. In some systems, this may be someone other than the Head of State (i.e. the prime minister in the Westminster systems), while in other cases, the roles of the Head of State and Head of Government are combined (i.e. in the United States, the president serves as both the Head of State and the Head of Government).

1. Who is the Head of State?

- President
- Monarch
- Prime Minister serves as ceremonial head of state
- Other (please specify)

2. How is the head of state selected?

- Direct election
- Indirect election
- Birth right
- Divine right
- Other (Explain)

2a. If by direct election, by what process?

- Plurality election
- Run-off or two-ballot system
- Other (Explain)

2a1. If by run-off system, how are the candidates selected for the final round?

- The _____(##) candidates with the highest vote totals advance to the second round
- Any candidate with at least _____% of the popular vote advances to the second round

2b. If by indirect election, by what process?

- Electoral college
- Selection by the legislature
- Other (Explain)

2b1. If by electoral college, how are electors chosen?

2b2. Does the electoral college deliberate?

- Yes
- No

2b3. What is the voting procedure used by the electoral college?

2b4. If by the legislature, by which chamber(s) of the legislature? What is the voting procedure used?

Chamber of Deputies (200 MPs) and the Senate (81 MPs). The vote can either be public or secret, but generally it is secret. A candidate who receives a simple majority of all votes from all the MPs and Senators (at least 101 votes of MPs and 41 Senators) is elected in the first round. If no candidate is elected, a candidate who receives most votes in the Chamber of Deputies and a candidate who receives most votes in the Senate proceed to the second round. A candidate who receives a simple majority of all the MPs present and a simple majority of all the Senators present (their votes are calculated separately) is elected in the second round. If no candidate is elected, there is a third vote; in the third vote a candidate who receives a simple majority of the votes of all the MPs and Senators present (taken together) is elected the President. This election mechanism makes it possible not to elect any of the candidates in the event that a greater number of voters opt to abstain from the vote, which increases the quorum (the number of votes needed for an election).

3. Does the Head of State have the following powers? Please check all that apply:

3a. Introduce legislation?

- Yes
- No

3b. Require expedited action on specific legislation? (i.e., set a deadline by which the legislature is required to act on the bill)?

- Yes
- No

Definitions: A Head of State possesses a partial veto when he or she can target specific clauses of a piece of legislation for veto, while promulgating the rest. In the U.S., such vetoes are sometimes called line item vetoes. A Head of State possesses a package veto when he or she can veto the entire piece of legislation submitted by the legislature, but cannot veto some parts and accept others.

3c. Package veto?

- No
- Yes, and the requirement to override the veto is: majority of all MPs in Chamber of Deputies to vote for the legislation

3d. Partial veto?

- No
- Yes, and the requirement to override the veto is:

3e. Issue decrees with the power of law?

- Yes
- No

3f. Emergency powers?

- Yes
- No

3g. Negotiate treaties and international agreements?

- No
- Yes, provided the following additional requirements are met: approved by the parliament

3h. Commander of the armed forces?

- Yes
- No

3i. Initiate referenda or plebiscites?

- Yes
- No

3j. Refer legislation to the judicial branch for review of constitutionality?

- Yes
- No

3k. Convene special legislative sessions?

- Yes
- No

B. QUESTIONS ABOUT THE HEAD OF GOVERNMENT.

Definitions: In some countries, the Head of Government is directly elected, in elections that may or may not occur concurrently with legislative elections. In these cases, the Head of Government is said to be elected independently of the legislature. In others, the Head of Government is the leader of the governing party or governing coalition in the legislature, and so, the selection of the Head of Government depends upon the distribution of seats in the legislature. In these cases, the Head of Government is not elected independently of the legislature.

4. Is the Head of Government elected independently of the legislature?

- Yes
- No

4a. Is the Head of Government also the Head of State?

- Yes
- No

4b. If the Head of Government is not elected independently of the legislature, how is the Head of Government selected?

- Appointed by the head of state alone
- Appointed by the legislature alone
- Nominated by the head of state, and approved by the legislature (with the whole cabinet)
- Nominated by the legislature, and approved by the head of state
- Other (Please explain):

5. What authorities does the Head of Government have over the composition of the cabinet?

Please check all that apply.

- Names ministers and assigns portfolios alone
- Nominates ministers for approval by the president (the role of president is formal)
- Reviews and approves ministerial nominations made by the president
- Dismisses ministers and reassigns portfolios at own discretion (with formal role of president is formal)
- Other (Please explain):

6. What authorities does the Head of Government have over the policy making process?

Please check all that apply:

- Chairs cabinet meetings
- Determines schedule of issues to be considered by the legislature
- Determines which alternatives will be voted on by the legislature, and in which order
- Refers legislative proposals to party or legislative committees
- Calls votes of confidence in government
- Other (Please explain): in majority cases, the head of the government is a party leader. Thus, he has a strong position within the party. HofG doesn't have any other special authorities.

7. By what method(s) can the cabinet be dismissed? Please check all that apply:

- By the head of state acting alone

- By some combination of the above, acting in concert (Please explain):
- Other (Please explain):
